

Kalamazoo Innovative Learning Program

Kalamazoo Promise Eligible

for students eligible by Promise standards

KILP is a small hybrid (part time in-person/part time remote) high school designed for 3rd and 4th year students who need to recover lost credit and progress toward graduation. KILP is designed for students who are significantly behind in credits, and who need more flexibility in their schedules.

Students engage in their Michigan Merit curriculum through a virtual platform with the support of a teacher and other support personnel, and work on their classes both in-person and remotely. Staff encourage students throughout their enrollment, but students should be able to work independently.

Program Features:

- 10-20 students per in-person session
- 10:1 Average Student:Teacher Ratio
- Flexible schedule (see below)
- Individualized learning environment

Schedule Options: Students meet for 2.0 hours in person on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday or on Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday as outlined below.
