

A Continuum of Return KPS Student Schedules Trimester II

Input gathered from:

Students

Teachers

Principals

Parents/Families

(through PAC, teachers, and principals)

Focus on.....

- *Continuous improvement for teaching and learning;
- *Student engagement time - attention to both quality and quantity;
- *Improved communication; and
- *Social emotional learning

Benefits of Increased Instructional Time

- More intentional time to explain concepts
- Check for understanding
- Implement strategies; including specific to students with support services (IEPs, ESL, 504s)
- More time for small peer breakout groups
- More interaction time with teachers to gain clarity on learning
- More time during class to start and progress with the work

Elementary

Changes from Trimester I to II

- Instruction time moved up 30 minutes to adjust more time at lunch
- Increased instructional time for more student contact time with teachers in order to ask questions, dig into deeper learning, and complete work
- Increased time for lunch so students are not rushed and can take a break
